Pirate

Co-Editors-in-Chief
Jay Schrader,
Robert Booth
We, the editors of the '73 PIRATE, have attempted to capture the many different worlds of Fauve Comprehensive High School. We realize that, being such a busy year, not everything can be pictured in such a small book. If this book brings back pleasant memories now and in 30 years to come, then our work will have been a pleasure. Finally, we hope that everyone who views this book will gain a better understanding of our school and the many worlds around us.

The Editors-in-Chief

Grouped by plan and singled out by individuality, one searches for his personalized identity in a world of conformity.
The faces of youth and those who work with youth, reflect the hope, joy, love, anxiety, admiration, and frustrations of today's people in today's world.
Two Outstanding Teachers Receive ‘PIRATE’ Dedication!!

Mr. Renny Connell

We, the editors are proud to announce the dedication of the ‘PIRATE’.

One, who has been with us for the past 3 years, has constantly amazed us with his patience, satirical humor, and his time spent on various extra-curricular activities.

The other has been outstanding in the field of sports. He has inspired all our teams to do their very best. He has not only been a coach but a friend as well.

It is with great pride that the senior class of 73’ dedicates the PIRATE to Mr. Renny Connell and Coach Larry Wright.

Secretaries

Ringing of a telephone and the click-clacks of a typewriter can be heard in each secretary’s office at Panco Comprehensive High School.

Eight hours a day, five days a week are spent by these ladies making sure school records are straight, students get to class on time, the principal’s correspondence is sent out and many more tasks are performed.

Without their bright faces the administration office would be just another empty building.

Organizations

In addition to scholastic and social activities, Pasco is held in esteem for the services performed by its clubs and organizations both in school and in community life. The band has entertained at school programs, at football games, and in the city and state. Clubs have strived for cooperation in improving school functions and many have worked for community projects. The numerous organizations at Pasco are a part of the school's effort for good character, leadership, scholarship, and service. Serving one's fellow men is noble and helps prepare young people for richer, fuller lives.

Lettermen’s Club

Future Business Leaders of America is an organization for business students. It offers opportunities to develop aggressive business leadership, to participate in activities for the improvement of business, school, and community, and to strengthen the confidence of young men and women in themselves and their work.

Pep Club

The Pep Club works throughout the year trying to promote spirit. They do this by yelling at pep rallies and football games. One of their main projects is sponsoring homecoming.

Another of Pep Club’s activities is the painting of signs during football season.

Spanish Club

Spanish Club is organized to provide students interested in the Spanish language, Spanish culture and Spanish-speaking countries of the world, a means to further their interests.

The Club sponsors field trips each year for all Spanish language students to areas with significant Spanish influence in the local area. The Club sponsored three field trips to Tampa and near-by areas during the 1972-73 school year.

The highlight of the year, however, was the five-day "Bienvenido a Mexico" tour to Merida, Yucatan, Mexico during spring vacation. A group of thirty students had the time of their lives trying-out at first hand their newly-learned foreign language in near-by, but foreign land of intrigue, Mexico.

It's South America in 1973-74!
Student Council

The responsibility of the 25 members on the Student Council is to harvest the ideas and desires of the student body they represent. The gathered responses are taken to the Council as possibilities where they are incubated and then hatched into realities.

The Journalism Class of 1972-73 is made up of first and second year students. The second year students put the “Pirate Log” together, while first year students learn the processes of news writing and the preparations of putting out a paper.

The “Pirate Log” is printed monthly and covers school and town news. It is a source of entertainment and news for the students of Pasco Comprehensive High School.

The staff will also be putting out a magazine consisting of short stories, poetry, art, etc. All students of PCHS can participate. This will be a first attempt for a magazine.

Sadie Hawkins
It's a night all of these girls will remember, each representing her own class. After it's over there's nothing left but pictures, a withered corsage, and, of course, their memory of Homecoming, 1972.

"Rememberance is the only paradise out of which we cannot be driven away, indeed our first parents were not deprived of it."
— Richter

The crowds suddenly grew silent and in the night air one can feel the excitement mount to a staggering height. Then a low, bold voice announces, "And the Homecoming Queen for 1972-73 is...

The 1972-73 basketball team has compiled a record that will probably be difficult to equal for sometime to come. Undoubtedly the highpoint of the season was the home victory over the Hornets of Haines City, and the triple victories over our rivals, the Bulldogs of Zephyrhills.

LARGE ENOUGH TO SERVE YOU - SMALL ENOUGH TO KNOW YOU
Closing

Those who have worked on this year’s PIRATE do not have to be named, for they know who they are and how very much we have appreciated their help. Many hours were spent trying to come up with a theme, meet deadlines, and how to picture the changes that were taking place on our campus.

We Seniors do not face one world in our future, but many. Hopefully, in this year’s PIRATE, we have shown the many worlds of our year at Pasco Comprehensive High School.

Finally, to Carolyn, we wish all the luck to her on next year’s PIRATE.

Joy and Robert
