CLASS HISTORY

On a dull dreary day in September 1937, Alton Tyre, Betty Jean Thomas, and Mary Ellen Ellerbe came tricycling up to dear old Zephyrhills School in pig tails and short pants to begin our 12 long years of hard labor. Mrs. Helen Hamilton started us on our way.

In the second grade we joined Billy Douglas and Howard Cherry under the supervision of Miss Lilian Kirkland and continued on our way.

We began the third grade under the leadership of Miss Sarah Parsons. Our luck soon changed though, when a Georgia boy, William Tilley came stumbling in.

In our fourth year, guided by Miss Elizabeth Brown, Herbert McGinnis and John Bryant joined our happy family.

A Richland gal, Lovie Bolden, joined us in the fifth grade with Mrs. Mary Koontz as our sponsor.

In the sixth grade we advanced rapidly with the guidance of Mrs. Nellie Price.

We trudged through the seventh grade with Mr. Cornelius in charge of our group.

In the eighth grade our home room teacher was Miss Edith Plank.

Ah! Freshmen at last! Pat Thomson came blushing her way in followed by Mary Louise Allen, the future “Miss Pasco County”. Mrs. Vera Geeting was our class sponsor.

We progressed rapidly through the tenth grade under the direction of Mr. Lee Fox.

In our Junior year we were joined by our football hero from Brooklyn, Jerry Bodenburg, and a Dakota kid, Malvin Hinsz. Under the sponsorship of Miss Clement we produced a successful Jr. Play, followed by a wonderful Banquet and Prom.

At last we are proud and dignified Seniors! Mr. Parker was our guide and companion throughout the year. Some of the many activities of this year were our Senior Class Play, Skip-A-Way Day, Kid’s Day and the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. We will always remember our high school days and hope that we shall enjoy continued success throughout life.
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of '49, of Zephyrhills High School, being of sound mind do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament:

I, Mary Louise Allen, leave my ability to pass bookkeeping to Jook England and my weight of "210" to Jack Bohannon.

I, Jerry Bodenburg, will Freddie Gore's girl friend, N. S., to James Hennessey and my curly hair to John Atkinson.

I, John Bryant, leave my skill in writing poetry to Phillip Russel and my ability to work math problems to Agnes Forbis.

I, Mary Ellen Ellerbe, will my tall slender figure to Martha Jean Forbis and my technique to latch on to a steady fella to Tillie Prachar.

I, Herbert McGinnis, will my ability to argue to Virginia Wasner and my scientific mind to Bink Barfield.

I, Bill Tilley, will my skill to drive a car successfully to Bill Nevins and my talent of "jitterbugging" to Cannie Mae White.

I, Betty Jean Thomas, leave my sweet southern accent to Shirley Miles and my job in the lunchroom to Joan Cooper.

I, Alton Tyre, will my bashfulness with the girls to Ronald Bright and my shiny black hair to Claude Kinard.

I, Bill Douglas, leave my ability to stay out of trouble to Jean Lefler and my position as teacher's pet to Jaynell LeHeup.

I, Pat Thomson, will my radiant blush to Nancy Skinner and my vacant seat in homeroom to Odis Hill.

I, Malvin Hinsz, leave to John Jones all the noise of that thing I call a car and my typing ability to Earl Wells.

I, Howard Cherry, will my ambitions to Mabel Greene and my ability to always be prompt to Bobby Clardy.

I, Lovie Bolden, leave my bean pole figure to Roberta Leeson and my peroxide bottle to Bobby Whitehead.

We, the Senior Class, do will to Mr. Luckenbach a lasting memory of our class.

To the Faculty we leave all the knowledge which they have pounded into our heads.

To Mr. Parker, our sponsor, we will the next Senior Class and hope that they will be as "wonderful?" as we are.

To the Senior Class of 1950 we will all the privileges that we didn't get and also the use of the recorder which is our gift to the school.

To the Sophomore Class we will all the work which we didn't have time to complete.

To the Freshman Class we leave our homeroom so that they might not disturb any other classes.

CLASS PROPHECY

On Skip-away day, Mr. Parker, wondering what his Seniors of '49 would be doing after ten years had elapsed, visited a fortune-teller and this is what she told him:

I faintly discern a church in the distance. Ah! I hear the wedding march and I see Mary Ellen Eillerbe and her "One and Only" walking down the aisle. The minister about to perform the ceremony is William Tilley, the Senior Class Chaplain.

I now see a large football field. Duke, coached by Jerry Bodenburg, has just made a touchdown against Chapel Hill.

The scene drifts down to Georgia where I see Lovie Bolden who has devoted her life to managing an Old Folks' Home.

Now we go to Paris where we find a big banquet being given in honor of Howard Cherry, a famous Chemist. He has just discovered, after ten years of hard work, that water is a liquid.

We slowly come back to Crystal Springs where we see the Home Office of the A. & P. Corporation covering ten blocks. After inquiring within we entered an exclusive office and behind a cloud of cigar smoke we find Bill Douglas, now President of this great concern.

Ah! Here's Atlantic City! We see Mary Louise Allen being crowned Miss America of '59 and smiling from ear to ear. And there is John Bryant, the famous radio announcer, broadcasting this spectacular event.

Look! A classroom! Can it really be? Yes, it is Pat Thomson diligently struggling with her third graders and trying to teach them that "conspetuous" is just another word for customary.

Now we go out on the vast blue ocean. Aboard the battleship, "Sink-Again", we see Malvin Hinsz mixing a prescription for the Admiral. (P.S. The Admiral died!)

What's this I hear? Could it be? Yes, it's the patter of little feet! When we look closer we see one we used to know as Betty Jean Thomas chasing her seven little ones and trying to persuade them that it is bedtime.

Flash! Hot off the press we read that Herbert McGinnis has just astounded the world with the discovery and proof that there are six dimensions. Some Mathematician!!!!

At the huge restaurant "The Hole in the Wall" we see many great personalities, among them are the President of the U. S., the King of England, the Emperor of China, and who's this, of course, Alton Tyre--washing dishes in the Kitchen!!!!

And feeling very proud, Mr. Parker continued on his way.
