PROUDLY PRESENTS
THE

1956 ZEPHILSCO
DEDICATION

To Mr. Henderson, our principal, we dedicate this 1956 Zephilsco. This is our token to him for the much help and guidance he has shown us in the past year. Our thanks go to him for coming here when our school needed him most and helping us get a good start in the right direction toward higher educational and moral standings. Again we say, "Thank you, Mr. Henderson."

FACULTY
To the Seniors of 1956

I would like to express my sincere wish that you will find all the happiness and success in life that you are seeking.

Your ability to accept responsibility will in large measure be the determining factor in the degree to which you attain your goals in life. I hope that your school experiences will have helped you to accomplish this.

Sincerely,

Charles A. Henderson

CLASS HISTORY

The future looked bright for 16 timid and bashful boys and girls who, back in 1944, took their first steps down the hall of Zephyrhills School. They were: Melba Adkinson, Edith Austin, Vanceil Clardy, Ellen Heath, Ruby Hill, Olivee Jones, Nancy Miller, Nell Locke, Betty Newsome, Mary Sawtelle, Curtis Craig, Nathan Geiger, Roger Lane, James Jones, Robert Nelson, and Lamart Massey. We began our education under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Hamilton.

Believe it or not this bunch of little wiggle-worms made it on to the second grade where we were joined by Alex Allen. This year we had two teachers, Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Price.

In the third grade we were joined by five new pupils. They were: Yvonne Cooper, Connie Dayton, Gail Smith, Larry Burnette and James Wasner. Again it took two teachers to hold us in the right path. Mrs. Hart and Miss Rawlinson had this great honor.

Well, the fourth grade passed without too much interruption. Mrs. Eilmaker and Mrs. Melius had their hands full with us though. Linda Williams, Margaret Seppanen and James Dennison joined our happy little, or should I say big family.

On to the fifth grade where Pearl Rowe was our only addition. This was the year we had to learn the 48 states and their capitals. We finally did this under the leadership of Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Zarth.

Nancy Lee, Carol Sibley, James Jarrett and Richard Mattingly came to join us in our last year in grammar school. Teachers this year were Mrs. Price and Mrs. Trottman.

Well at last we were in Junior High. Mrs. Kaylor and Mrs. Atwater were our home room teachers.

Something sure must have gotten into us because in the eighth grade it took three teachers for us. Janet Freed, and Carol Hughes, who joined us, might have been the cause of this but it’s doubtful. Our sponsors were Mrs. Zarth, Mrs. Paranthia and Mrs. Matthews.

We really thought we were something now. High enough in school to have a name, Freshman. Natescha Betterman and Kay Crawford came to help us celebrate. Mrs. Anderson and Mr. Osborne were our sponsors.

By the time we reached our Sophomore year we were fairly familiar with High School. Edith Overton, Charles Whittington and Donald Whitworth decided to come and graduate with us, which was a very good idea. This year Mrs. Gill and Miss Evans sponsored us.

Now we were Juniors. This was the big day. Some events that took place were our class play "Finders Creepers," and our Junior-Senior Prom, the best ever, which went under the title of "Moonlight and Roses." This also was the year we ordered our Class Rings. My, what a day that was. Sarah Peck, Edward Courtney and Robert Howell, better known as "Bob", came to join in the fun and excitement. Mr. Webb was our only sponsor this year. We finally quieted down enough that one teacher could handle us.

The eventful time was here at last. Our Senior year started off with a bang and was over before we knew it. Days were full of Annual Staff meetings, play practices, concession stand at the football games, ordering cap and gowns and just about everything you can think of. We were joined by Thomas Carte, Wendell Collins, and Le Roy Lincoln who helped us through our last year in High School. Before we knew it Class Night, Baccalaureate and then Commencement when we walked the aisle of the Home Theater, were looking us in the face.

Yes, our school days are over and our Annual, Zephilscope 1956, is our book of memories to you of the best class ever to graduate. Although our class will go from one extreme to another, we will never forget our day and our teachers back at "Beloved Z. H. S."
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class will to Coach Clements, our sponsor, the '56 Zebulon and all the pleasant memories of our great class.

We, the Senior Class will to the Junior Class our ability to make money.
We, the Senior Class will to the Sophomore Class our ability to be different.
We, the Senior Class will to the Freshman Class our sophisticated ways.

I, Charles Whittington, will to Gerald Price my 1938 Plymouth with assorted squeaks and rattles.
I, Nell Locke, will to Anthony Yebara my position as band captain, my ability to stay out of trouble, and my heavy weight of 96 pounds.
I, Alex Allen, will to David McKee my ability to make straight A's in Mrs. Gill's classes and my ability to drive safely at all times to David Bright.
I, Bob Howell, will to "Casey" my speed and ability to run low on the football field and also my ability to get along with all the women.
I, Edith Overton Griffin, will to Curtis Washburn my ability to chew gum in class and not get caught.
I, James Wasner, will to Paul Canaday my wavy red hair and my position as right guard on the football team.
I, Lamar Massey, will to Janet Johnson my blonde, curly hair, and my school girl waist line.
I, Connie Dayton, will to Betty Kennedy my old typewriter in the typing room and my ability to stay off the honor roll.
I, Larry "Loudmouth" Burnette, will to Joe Thorn my ability to make straight A's in all of Mrs. Gill's classes.
I, Carol Sibley, will to Barney Beach my quiet, conservative laugh and my ability to keep my mouth shut.
I, Vonceil Clardy, will to Murrel Nesbit my position as Head Cheerleader along with my quiet and timid ways. To Jackie Massey I will my dimples and towering height.
I, James Dennison, will to Fred Holt my flirtatious ways and my nickname of "Lonesome."
I, Bobby Nelson, will to Frank Greene my blond curly hair.
I, Gail Smith, will to Russell Kersey my never failing typewriter in Office Practice.
I, Margaret Seppanen, will to Gracie Shelton my ability to take dictation in shorthand and be able to transcribe it afterward.
I, Melba "Cotton" Adkinson, will my ability to play a "cool" baritone saxophone, to be serious at all times, and my blonde, wavy hair to Mary Frances Gill;"
I, Pearl "Magnolia" Rowe, will my ability to trick a boy into giving me an engagement ring, my ability to always get to school by lunch, and my old worn out Bookkeeping workbook to Betty Ann Wilson.
I, Olivee Jones, will to Norma Jean Baker my ability to chew gum in Mrs. Gill’s Bookkeeping class and to bum a ride down town.
I, Tommy Carte, will to Elmer Hinsz my ability to get out of giving speeches.
I, Betty Newsome, will to John Trebour my ability to be quiet in class.
I, Jackie Brown, will to Peggy Prowant my long blonde hair.
I, Mary "Boots" Sawtelle, will to Margaret Hazelwood my ability to be a "Gene Krupa" drummer, my position as a drum majorette, and my ability to be on the A Honor Roll.
I, James Jarrett, will to David Bright my ability to climb poles.
I, Curtis Craig, will to Linden Laviano my great height, curly hair, and straight teeth which goes along with my ability to learn Spanish easily.
I, Natescha Betterman, will to Glenn Eugene (Catfish) Miller my brown hair and my great ability to play football.
I, Rubye Hill, will to Margaret Keen my blonde wavy hair, and some of my witty ways.
I, Janet Freed, will to Ada Austin my great height and baby blue eyes.
I, Wendell Collins, will to Lynn Steve my "Dragon Wagon."
I, Roger Lane, will to Susanne Coolidge all my curly hair and my ability to skip school and get away with it.
I, Carol Hughes, will my short black hair and beautiful freckles to Virginia Edgeman.
I, Lillian "Lee" Cone, will to Mary Ann Mattingly my ability to keep out of trouble, to get along with all my teachers, and to go through Office Practice without buying one single sheet of typing paper the whole year.
I, Yvonne Cooper, will to Jerry Lee Fisher my old Victor Book I used in band and my sometimes quiet laugh.
I, Donald Whitworth, will my important position on the football team to Richard Karppe.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF ’56
By Ellen Heath
Sarah Peck
Natescha Betterman, Carol Hughes, and Connie Dayton have just taken a toll of the graduating class of '56. Here's what we find out as we look through the files. Incidentally, they are now our nation's census takers.

May 31, 1966

James Jarrett spends all his time teaching his seven daughters the art of pole climbing--telephone poles, that is.
Margaret Seppanen has a job as a secretary and after ten years of practice she has perfected her shorthand so that she can just about read her notes. The fact is she has begun writing everything in shorthand--nobody can read her longhand.
Nancy Lee is now employed as a vocalist on the Massey Network which, by the way, is run by Lamarr Massey. He never goes on the screen though--he's afraid people will compare his physique with that of Jackie Gleason.
Richard Mattingly, Nathan Geiger, and Bob Howell are still at Z.H.S. where they have been detained because of their ability to play football.
Mary Sawtell has become the world famous Dior Defying fashion designer and model. Gail Smith works as her top secretary and has a sideline of raising quite a family. Well, if you call eight kids a family--almost a herd.
Nell Locke still runs the paper route. On this job she not only delivers papers but also helps Yvonne Cooper, the World's Champion Lady Wrestler, keep in good training by letting her run alongside.
James Jones, owner, director, and producer of Jones Studios, supplies the nation with Supercolossal Movies, which are a combination of Vistascope and Cinemavision.
Sarah Peck always thought that being a missionary's wife would be exciting. What she didn't know was that that red hair was real.
Charles Whittington has been promoted to President of the local bank--with this comes a raise in pay--now he can afford a new transmission for his '38 Plymouth.
Melba Adkinson and Kay Crawford are two of the top secretaries at the United Nations. They actually got those Russians so confused that they are applying for admittance to the United States.
Roger Lane has finally learned to use the dictionary with the help of Mrs. Gill--he is kind of fast at catching on, it only took him 10 years to learn.
Bubba Allen has acquired his prize possession, a Columbia rear end for his car--the only catch in this deal is that he no longer has a car.
Edith Overton Griffin now sports around in a hot-rod--one she made herself--this is quite a change from the career of nursing she originally planned to go into.
Tommy Carte has found something new to shoot at in the vanishing prairie behind his house--vanishing because every now and then during a rainy season it becomes an ocean.
Wendell Collins is now the proud possessor of a can of Duck-wax polish for his '49 Ford convertible. This wax was given to him by Donald Whitworth who combined all his formulas left over from chemistry and happened upon this great discovery.
Carol Sibley has a new job. She is now taking up lunch tickets instead of giving them out as she did for three years at Z.H.S. and four years at college.
Ruby Hill has cultivated a very slow southern drawl whereas Pearl Rowe went to the extreme opposite.

Janet Freed, as a beautician, has fulfilled her lifetime ambition—that of giving Olivee Jones a crewcut. As a result, Olivee is getting rich making expensive toupees.

Vonceil Clardy runs the largest Sweet Shoppe in the U.S. As her head soda jerk she employs Linda Williams. By putting their heads together they dream up such concoctions as "Cyanide Shake", the milk shake that puts you out of this world.

Betty Newsome now has her mansion on a hill and a brand new Cadillac to go with it. Seems as how she found her pot o' gold early in life.

Nancy Miller is nursing Ellen Heath back to health. Her condition was caused by a nervous breakdown resulting from the publication of this yearbook. This annual not only caused one, but two nurses, to be needed. Mr. Brantley ran off to dark Africa and was followed by our missionary nurse, Edith Austin, who vowed not to let him do anything drastic.

Larry Burnette is now the chief bookkeeper and typist of the National Guard Unit No. 7-11 at Crystal Springs. Curtis Craig has organized a detention ward in 7-11. The main objection to this is that he is the sole occupant of something he devised for other people.

Miss Ellen Heath, Editor-in-Chief
Zephyrills High School
Zephyrhills, Florida

February 27, 1956

Dear Miss Heath:

Looking at the photographs submitted to me that each of these students have been very wonderful things to have. I believe from the contest here goes:

Miss Ellen Heath, Editor-in-Chief

1. Sarah Peck
2. Carol Hughes
3. Nancy Lee
4. Lamar Massey
5. LeRoy Lincoln
6. James Jarrett

I would like to add Ability to Make Friends to the as being just as important, and to say thanks and luck.
