The Senior Class of Zephyrhills High School presents "The '58 Zephlisco"
DEDICATION

To Mr. Stewart M. Brown, our principal, who has been patient with us and worked with us through this year, we dedicate this 1958 edition of The ZEPHILSCO. "Thanks" for help making our senior year more enjoyable by the senior privileges and we deeply appreciate your hard work and interest.

Best wishes.

Stewart M. Brown

To Mr. Stanley Kendrick, who is not only an outstanding teacher but also a friend to all the seniors, we dedicate this 1958 edition of the ZEPHILSCO. We will never forget you and the many things you have taught us. We will be better able to face life from having known you.

JAMES BRAXTON
CLASS HISTORY

The sands of time are standing still, and we are now drifting way-way back, 12 long-grueling years to the first glorious days of school for the class of '58. We now see some well-behaved children, who were under the expert hands of Mrs. Helen Hamilton. Of the original first grade class in '46, we can only recall Wanda Hazelwood, Julianne Baggett, Edwina Jones, Barbara Peeples, Martha Brown, Donna Clark, Bemice Arnold, Nancy Douglas, Ruth King, Roy Lane, Janet Williamson, Ralph Massey, Murray Thomas, Brantley Smith, James Witt, Carsie Kirkland, Roy Freeburg, Donald Geiger, and Wendell Hill. This was the beginning of the end; the the girls began noticing the boys and the boys began chasing the girls. (Our first grade room was in the room where the Chemistry Lab is now located.)

Next came the second grade. We proved too much for one teacher to hold, so the only thing to be done was to put us in two rooms. Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Austin were selected for this job, and to make matters worse, Mildred Smith, Tawana Campbell, Christine Lamb, Harold Hunt, and Larry Miller joined our merry band of tormentors. It was in this happy year that we made play houses, ate green mulberries, got sick and otherwise thought ourselves important. Our Class has always been a dramatic minded group, even as young as the second grade and so it was, we put on the colossal production, "Spring Play", with Spring, herself, fairies, and flowers.

In our next year of schooling, the "higher ups" found we had to stay in two rooms. Mrs. Viana Gall, and Mrs. Mable Campbell proved very efficient in handling us. Clara Mae Adams, John Hicks, Felton Howard, and John Mihalakis could stand it no longer being away from our growling, crazy crowd, so they came along, too.

We proved our dramatic ability again this year, the fourth, by putting on a musical version of "Rumplestilskin", coached by Mrs. Ellmaker and Miss Bartlett. Roger Sibley, Frances Stanley, Darlene Wilson, Gloria Lewis, and Richard Whitaker joined us. Our numbers were ever increasing.

In the fifth grade, they thought it would be wise to let a male teacher have part of our group, and let us get use to men teachers; Mr. Dooley was assisted by Mrs. Modest Hart. We also changed classes this year, short lived though it was; made candle holders out of old bottles; and presented a Halloween program at the PTA Carnival. (It was Hawaiianian--hula skirts and all.) Margaret Nelson, George Trebour, and Bill McCallister, arrived, swelling our number to 33.

In the sixth grade, under the guiding hands of Mrs. Hettie Jane Price and Mrs. Rosemary Trotman, we made up plays, drew murels, made paper mache items, and voted in our first Student Council election. Bonnie Freed and Edward Lewis joined us, Richard Whitaker had left and had returned again, just couldn't stay away for long; the same thing happened with John Mihalakis.

The seventh grade, how, getting there. Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Trotman had us in their homerooms. We got mixed up the first day, but took to Junior High life, like a duck to water. Mary Frances Turner, Bob Lorenz, Larry Eskelund, Charles Bloom and Janet W. became a part of ZHS. Janet was finding it hard making up her mind whether to stay at ZHS.

We progressed right along in the eighth, under the sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Brown. The only eventful thing in this year besides learning all about the Navy, science and math, was the coming back to the fold of John M. and Edward Lewis, who had at last realized that ZHS was their one and only.

Freshmen!!! Man were we ever the gift to something. Mrs. Brown again had charge of us and Mrs. Stevens helped her out. We made lots of money, wrote stories, had a dilly of a party, otherwise disturbed the rest of the student body, and decorated and ushered at class night. The big end of the year party was the "mostest." We were joined by Beverly Bond, Glenda Sutton, Frank Sekach and Edson Ward.
CLASS HISTORY

Miss Botoroff and Mrs. Majorie Paraantha kept tabs on us this year, the tenth, and during the year we presented the play, "Abe Lincoln in Illinois", keeping up our great dramatic tradition. We also sold magazines this year and we added some more wonderful and brilliant students to our scroll, Ann Brooke Smith, Joanne Ellerbee, and Steve Huber, also Janet W. had finally made up her mind to stay, at last!

You'll never guess what! We finally made it *JUNIORS *, Can you beat that? Mrs. Constance Kaylor and Mrs. George Swing were our sponsors. This year was a riotous one. We had dances after football games, sold magazines, football programs and ads, had a big New Year's Eve Party, made a "Starlight Gardens" of the Prom and "Rocketed to the Stars" at the Banquet, and in our tradition of acting ability we presented "Three Fingers In The Door"; decorated and ushered at graduation. Homecoming Princess was Bernice Arnold and her attendent was Margaret Nelson. One person was admitted to our exclusive club, Lois Day.

The start of 1957-58 year rolled around with us under one head, Coach Johnny Clements. We began our last and final year of high school, our childhood was to be left behind us forever more when June came. It was during our last glorious year that Kay Anderson, and Donnie Nelson joined us. Hitherto they had been mere "Juniors", but they had liked us so much and wanted to be with us, that they hurriedly "Got" more credits to join us. Richard W. also returned to us after an absence of six years.

We had a refreshment booth at home football games, presented a modern teen-age comedy, "You Can't Kiss Caroline", received graduation cards and invitations, put out a yearbook, had Senior privileges, sold ads, and finally we marched down the aisle to receive our sheepskin.

As we thumb back through our "Annual", reliving the past, we can't help but feel a closeness for our classmates, teachers, parents, and friends. These thoughts and sentiments at leaving behind our fond memories and good days are only off set by the realization that this is the price paid to grow up. It was fun, but now we leave, "Hallowed Halls of ZHS", we may return and bestow petals at your feet.

Vaya con Dios!

Hasta la vista!

Faithfully,

Edwina Jones
We, the Senior Class of 1957-58, being of sound mind and body, do make and declare this to be our last will and testament:

TO ZHS, we leave memories of the best class ever to graduate.

To Coach Clements, we leave our appreciation for his help and guidance through our Senior year memories of a quiet homeroom.

To Mr. Brown, we leave a bottle of arsenic, which we are sure he will need after June, 1958, and appreciation for his patience with us.

To Mr. Brantley, we leave gratitude for many hours of hard work on the '58 edition of Zephilsco.

To the teachers, we leave just plain “Thanks.”

To the Juniors, we leave our Senior privileges of going to dinner 12 minutes early, being honored at all assemblies, and the use of the Senior homeroom for one year.

To the Sophomores, we leave our ability to make money.

To the Freshmen, we leave lots of luck, which they will need to graduate in 1961.

To the Junior boys, the Senior boys leave their ability to get along with the girls.

To the Junior girls, the Senior girls leave their ability to include in one slumber party all the following activities: a walk to Dade City on 301, swimming at the Zephyrhills Pool, dancing till dawn to Elvis’s records and more devilment we cannot mention because it might tend to incriminate us.

I, Tawana Campbell, will to Patricia Hayes, my ability to drive slowly and never have more than one person in the car and my ability to be drum majorette to Mary Ann Hodges.

I, Edwinia Jones, will to Laura Higgison, my ability to cut up in class and make bad grades.

I, Darlene Wilson, will my ability to skip school and get caught every time to Jerry Sanford and my notorious nickname of “Wee Willey” to Margie Braden.

I, Ann Smith, will to Margie Braden, my ability to be an enthusiastic football fan, attend all games and cheer the boys on.

I, Martha Brown, will to Benny Smith, my beat up coronet and my position as 1st coronet player and my honored position on the soccer team to Laura Higgison.

I, Kay Smith, will to Alice Hutchinson, all my safe driving awards and my desk in Senior homeroom.

I, Brantley Smith, will to Buzzie Reutimann, my ‘56 Chevy clutch and my ability to pass Business Law.

I, Frank Sekach, will to Carmen Yefba, my short straight hair and my ability to be serious at all times.

I, Ralph Massey, will to Marvin Gill, My ability to sit, on not the left end, but the right end, of the football bench.

I, Barbara Peeples, will to Marvin Wheeler, my notebook full of Elvis Presley pictures and to Delilah Johnson, my ability to out-argue everyone else in Business Law class.

I, Bob Lorenz, will to Bobby Hinsz, my ability to play fullback and my ability to be quiet in class to Artiste Parsons.

I, Glenda Sutton, will to Sandra Craig, my ability to always be in love and to Sylvia Sutton, my ability to get the most attention while cheering.

I, Mary Frances Turner, will to Medford Griffin, my perfect teeth and to Marcia Betterman, my Elvis Presley pin-ups.

I, Roy Lane, will to Medford Griffin, my quiet shy ways and my little black book.

I, Murray Thomas, will to Loretta Bamberger, my ability to loaf in class and still pass.

I, Mildred Smith, will to Louie King, my ability to laugh at other people’s jokes.
I, Clara Mae Adams, will to Shirley Walker, my ability to be loud at football games and to Patty Freed, my ability to make good grades in Bookkeeping.
I, Harold Hunt, will to Clifton Grimes, my ability to stay in bed in the morning.
I, Roger Sibley, will to Merle Padgett, my ability to get eight people in the cab of my truck.
I, Margaret Nelson, will to Bobby Hinzs, my ability to attend school every day and always get there before noon and to Bobby Jean Temples, my ability to eat more bananas than anyone else at slumber parties.
I, Julianne Baggett, will to Lorelei Lincoln, my ability to Jitterbug.
I, Charles Bloom, will to Fred Trebour, my ability to play drum and my privilege of bothering the Senior girls.
I, Ruth King, will to Dorothy Hudson, my position as majorette and my ability to get away with anything in Mr. Swing's class and to Medford Griffin, my ability to speak when spoken to.
I, Donna Clark, will to Monica Prowant, my ability to stay at least 6 budgets behind in office Practice and my long straight, blond hair.
I, Gloria Lewis, will to Pat Whitehead, my ability to take dictation that can never be transcribed.
I, John Hicks, will to Terry Hancock, my ability to be lover of all Jr. High Girls.
I, George Trebour, will to Kay Pope, my laquaciousness, and to Carmen Yebba my "DA" and catty ways.
I, Joanne Ellerbee, will to Mary Ann Hodges, my ability to go with the same boy for two years.

I, Donnie Nelson, will to Benny Brooks, my ability to play football and not break my leg, and to Dorothy Hudson, my broad shoulders and blond hair.
I, Janet Williamson, will to Lynda Winterstein, my long brown naturally curly hair and my ability to always get a date with the boy I want to go with.
I, Bonnie Freed, will to Barbara Youmans, my ability to be awkward and wear glasses all my life.
I, Larry Miller, will to Bob Gerlach, my ability to charm girls and my ability to be on the A honor roll.
I, Christine Luker, will my 25 crinolines and my ability to be a young housewife and still be a mighty Senior, to Shirley Walker.
I, Roy Freeburg, will to Donald Edwards, my ability to make straight A's in Mrs. Gill's commercial courses, and also my ability to ride a motorcycle and not wreck it.
I, Nancy Douglas, will to Sandra Wolancevich, my ability to do bookkeeping.
I, Larry Eskelund, will my musical ability to Louie King, and my curly, blond hair to Terry Hancock.
I, John Mihalakis, will to Curtis Young, my ability to pass American History on extra credit work and my ability to get along with people.
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Wendell Hill, will to Charlie Rae Adams, my broken down old '36 Plymouth and old '50 Ford.
I, Edward Lewis, will to Bobby Hinsz, my physique and my ability to be a letterman in football.
I, Harry E. Ward, will to Theron Howard, my high IQ.
I, Bernice Arnold, will to Monica Prowant, my Chemistry Book and American History homework and my distinguished seat in DCT.
I, Carsie Kirkland, will to Bobby Jean Temples, my jitterbugging techniques.

Dear Coach;

Ten years have passed since the Seniors of 1958 graduated, and I thought you might be interested in what they are doing. From all reports I learned our class has been busy and we have many accomplishments to our credit.

Beverly Bond has used her experience as candy room worker to open up a Sweet Shoppe on 5th Avenue. Gloria Lewis is her business manager and uses her artistic ability to draw advertising propaganda. They’re doing a land office business especially when both get beyond the counter and dream up concoctions. James Witt and Nancy Douglas have become public enemies. By this we don’t mean they are crooks but they have boxing bouts in the middle of 301 because Witt’s Wonder-World process of cleaning is giving Douglas’s Sputnik Special method stiff competition.

Edison Ward has taken over where Edison left off. He invented a pushbutton method of printing newspapers with news brought in by his robot reporters. He’s been working to perfect his method, though, because the papers are all printed inside the machine and he can’t get them out.

Glenda Sutton writes a daily lovelorn column contradicting Mary Hayworth. She specializes in 10 easy lessons on how to be engaged without a ring or boy. Martha Brown has just revolutionized the Grand Ole Opry. Martha Steals the show every Saturday night with her, “Howdy, I’m just so proud to be here.” You ought to see Ernest Tubb pick the guitar to Chopin’s Fifth Symphony. By the way, Elvis is taking voice lessons from her now. Ralph Massey was given an interest in the American Can Co. because he worked so many school hours; the head of the Co. thought he deserved it. Bob Lorenz is now Coach of the Detroit Tigers. His old friend, Al Kaline, now retired, has joined Bob as assistant Coach.

Larry Miller runs a club which teaches its members how to do the least possible work with the least possible exercise. He got into the habit his Senior year, Harold Hunt and Roger Sibley have become caretakers of the Tourist Club. The club has been converted into an Old Maids’ Home with bachelors!!! John Hicks liked the National Guard so much that he made it his career. He is now standing on the corner of Fifth Avenue recruiting others to that dedicated life of cleaning the Armory.

Felton Howard rebuilt Hiltson’s and made a big name for himself in the Grocery Business. With his good looks, Felton attracts all women customers. After graduating from West Point, Richard Whitaker became an influential political leader. He is now President of the United States and Kay Smith is his private secretary. Kay always did want to be in Civil Service but she never dreamed she would be secretary to the President.

Roy Freeburg is proprietor of Freeburg’s Service Station and Garage and sells Sinclair gasoline. Donald Geiger owns a rival station that sells Phillips 66. They compromised and became partners and now sell Sinclair 66.

Bernice Arnold has gone into business for herself and now owns her own dentist office. She has recently perfected a painless method of drilling teeth. The seat moves you around and jars you up and down and the drill remains in one place. Wanda Hazelwood, being so tall herself, opened a dress shop exclusively for tall girls. It includes dresses for girls 5’8” and over. Bonnie Freed finally hooked that guy from Plant City that she has been going with for so long. From what we hear she has her hands full bringing up four children.

Ruth King is making the town more beautiful with her beauty shop. She has all the latest hair styles and she never repeats one. Ruthie is also married and has already started teaching her children to be flirtatious.

Mildred Smith is now full time secretary for Mr. Kendrick. She went over to DCT to help him so much her Senior year, she got into the habit.
CLASS PROPHECY

Larry Eskuland has rebuilt the Ford Agency. It now covers three blocks on 301. He and Ann have a fight every night because she owns a Chevrolet. But good-hearted Larry fixes it up for her every time she has a wreck. Carrie Kirkland is a top pharmacist. He specializes in reducing pills. One of his pills a day and you lose a pound a day, that is if you don’t bother to eat. Wendell Hill owns his own garage. His main job is testing radio switches. He sits in the car and turns the radio knobs on and off to check them. James Braxton is now a successful minister and his church is in Crystal Springs. He has a hard time trying to keep his congregation from going swimming on Sunday.

Julie Baggett and Darlene Wilson own and operate an all-night Drive-In. Julie plays the juke box and Darlene waits on the curb. The drive-in caters to teen-age Rock ‘n Roll fans. Julie is also a registered nurse during the day. Roy Lane finally made the Chicago Bears after a steady diet of peanut butter and bananas. He has now been asked to take over duties as head coach. Edwinia Jones has an exclusive dress design enterprise in the South, featuring the latest "Exclusives from Venus". She also has a magazine which features nothing but her "mad" clothing. It seems being Editor of the Bulldog Bulletin prepared her for such a task.

Lois Day and John Mihalakis finally said, "I do", when John had completely finished paying his old boss for the gas station.

Ann Smith has finally seen her long time dream come true—that of having a hundred acre ranch with pure bred Guernseys. Janet Williamson has really made a name for herself. She is known worldwide for her famous laugh, and she even had it patented to discourage copycats.

Christine Lamb Luker has her heart’s desire, that of a busload of children her own and being a woman racer. She has recently entered the Indianapolis 500. Brantley Smith is the founder of the first annual "Dragniks." He owns a drag strip from the earth to the moon and it a main attraction each year. The only thing raced naturally are "Chevyniks". Larry Bazzell takes the first prize each year and is awarded a Gold Satellite that ticks. Frank Sekach used his background in creative writing acquired from Senior English to become a famous author. He edits his own magazine "Wit" and from what we hear, "Dig" is going bankrupt.

The Air Force has come to depend very much on Donnie Nelson, who joined them shortly after graduation. He has become a famous test space pilot and he is also the "Heartthrob in Uniform" of the W.A.F.'s.

Tawana Campbell has graduated from Jones Business College and is a top notch private secretary for a certain guy in the Air Force.

Margaret Nelson is employed by MGM Studios. She designs and models fabulous creations that make the Stars beautiful. Her real career, however, is being Mrs. Floyd Cherry and raising "little Cherry's": George Trebour has divided a new cheap method of transportation to the Moon; that of a balloon and a candle. He also has a straight pin, divided for especially quick landings. Steve Huber plays professional basketball. When he's not playing, he's pushing pills, of his own concoction—a live pharmacist. He's also a philanthropist, giving free pencils and paper to the ZHS students who don't have any. Donna Clark was finally talked into being Steve's private secretary. It was a long hard battle but he won.

Claire Mae Adams is married and has Alvy Jr. and his little sisters to care for. She manages to get into town once in while, even though she lives so close (20 miles to be exact). Charles Bloom has a band. He plays drums in the latest hit record that sold a million. The name of the record is "The Blue Cha-Cha in Rock and Roll Minor." Edward Lewis has become a top-notch lumberjack, making an average of $50 a day. He also manages to enter Brantley's Dragnik once a year. Joanne Ellerbee joined the WAC's and became Captain. Now that PFC James White is out of the army and they are married, Joanne keeps things peaceful by pulling rank on him whenever they have an argument.
CLASS PROPHECY

Bill McCallister is top Salesman for Reutimann's Chevrolet Company. Coach, if you don't want to buy a Chevrolet, stay away from Bill.

Murray Thomas has joined the W.A.C.'s. In case you're wondering how he managed this, the W.A.C.'s would like to know too. Frances Stanley has the largest Babysitting Agency in the country. She hardly has time for her own two small children. I think she hires a babysitter.

And in case you're wondering what I have been doing, Mary Frances Turner and I have charge of a Boy Scout division. This isn't an ordinary troop; however, because we scout for boys!

Dear Miss Smith:

After a great deal of deliberation I have chosen as annual Queen, Miss Margaret Nelson with second and third choice being Miss Barbara Peeples and Miss Darlene Wilson.

For annual King, Mr. Milton Howard with second and third choice for Mr. Donnie Nelson and Mr. Roy Lane.

I wish it were possible to know these contestants personally, as I am sure their character and personality would enter a great deal in our selection.

Very cordially yours,

Howell McGraw
