To bring to you a brief glimpse of the life and adventures of one year in the lives of students is the aim of this 1968 Zephilsco. This is a time of change for all of us, and for the Seniors who are experiencing their last year in high school, this book should have special significance.

We, the Zephilsco Staff, have tried to capture the unexpected and unusual in this volume.

MRS. EDITH WARD

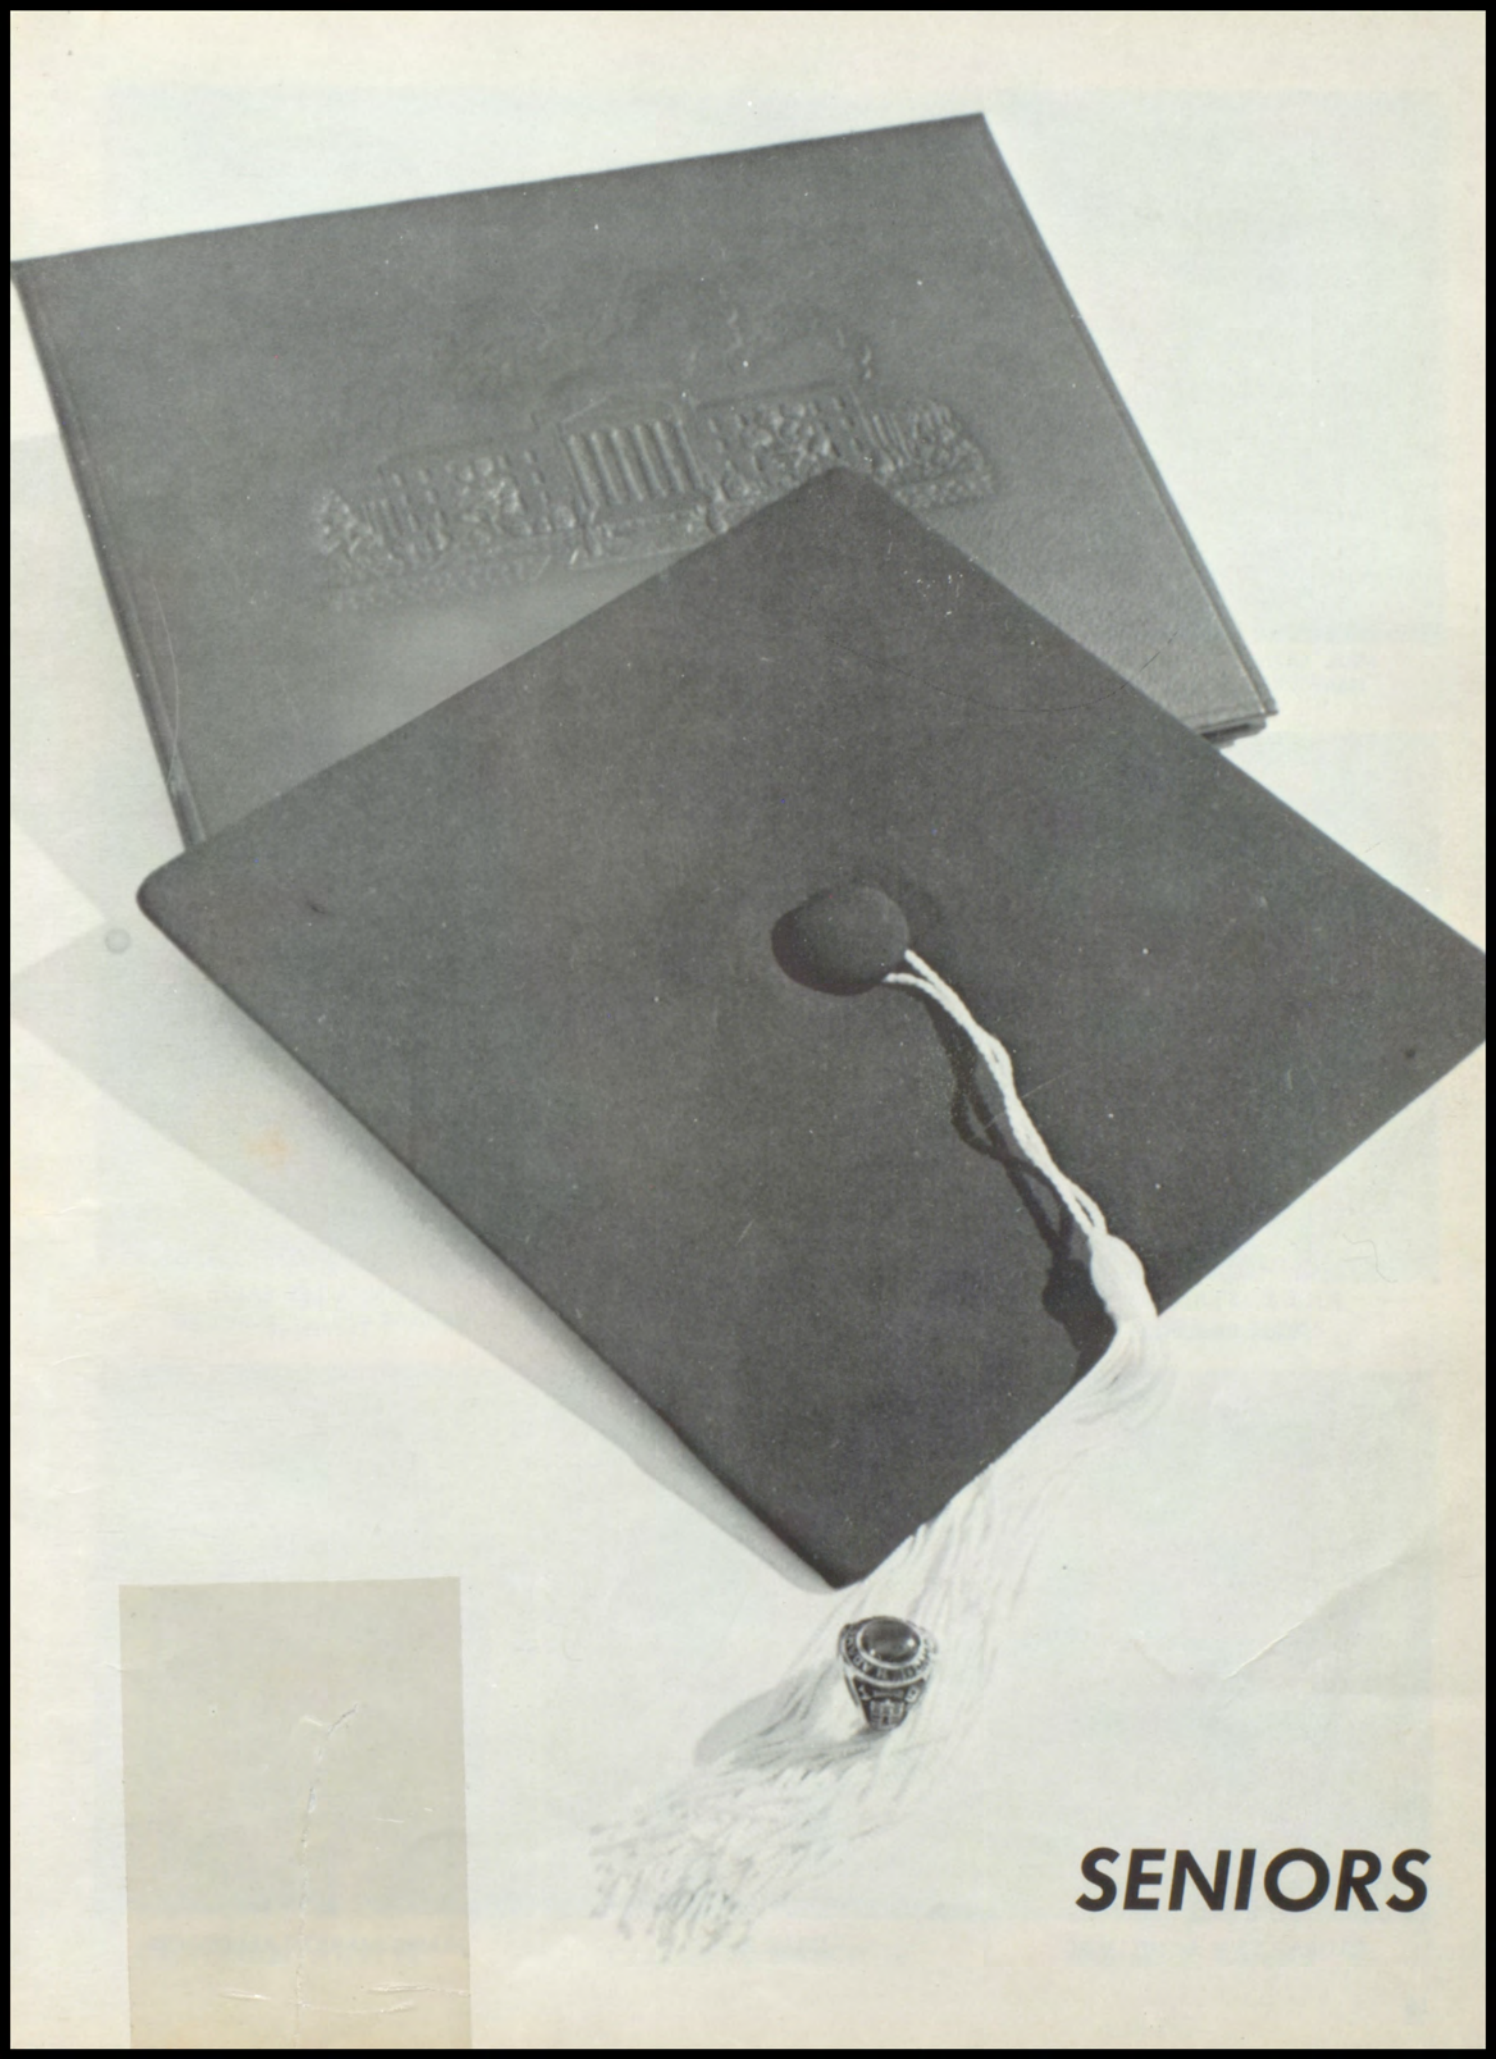

Day after day it takes an efficient and capable office staff to operate a busy and bustling high school.

Mrs. Ward served our school faithfully for the past seven years. Every student who had the opportunity to know her, will tell you that she was always willing to lend a helping hand.

We all will miss her at Z.H.S., as she left the early part of this school year to assume her duties with the Zephyrhills Police Department.

The thoughts and wishes of us here at Z.H.S. go with her to her new position,

Best of Luck, Mrs. Ward!

In Memoriam

Carolyn LeFevre Myers
1963

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.
But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way;
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
Undying love ...

LANGUAGES

Spanish and Latin are the foreign languages offered at school. For students interested in ancient history, the classics, and the origins of many words in our language, Latin provides the main attraction.

Our native tongue, English, must be taken in all four years of high school in order for us to graduate with a diploma.

MUSIC

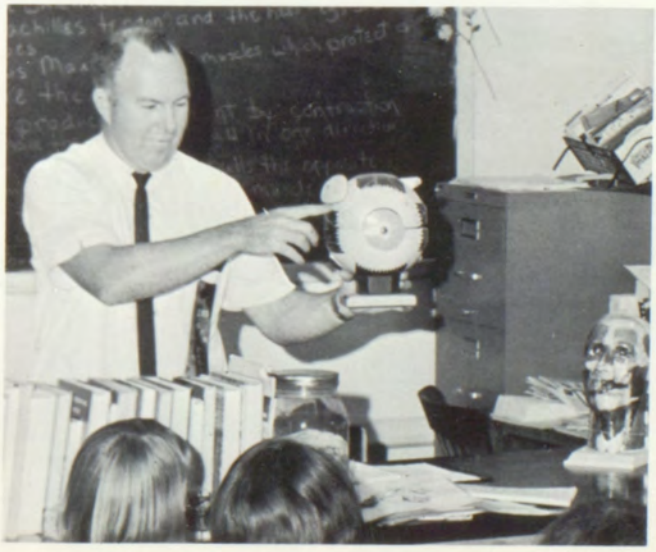

Music history and appreciation traces the development and history of music from very ancient times to the present. Students were able to hear music and were given lectures on art of the time periods covered. Thus the course serves as preparatory humanities instruction.

Students interested in playing music began in the sixth grade learning to play the instruments of their choice. Most of them continued on through junior high band and finally became members of the senior band.

SCIENCES

Two units in science are the minimum requirements for graduating with a diploma. Students may choose from among such varied divisions as general science, physical science, biology, Chemistry, physics, earth science, and physiology.

We are able to learn more of the whys and wherefores concerning ourselves and the world around us by studying the numerous sciences.

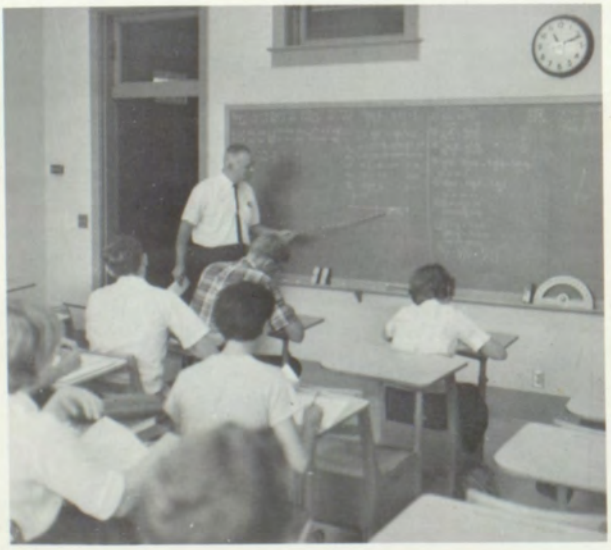

HOME ECONOMICS

Instructors of this course promote good housekeeping by teaching their students the regular homemaker's talents for sewing, cooking, and other like chores, and developing in them the sense of economy. The major part of this is taught through experience training in the kitchen and sewing room of the home economics department.

SOCIAL STUDIES

In the belief that students must learn to be informed about the world around them in order to grow into good American citizens, our school offers a wide range of subjects which are grouped under the heading, "social studies." Among these are economics, world history, American history, problems in American democracy, and Americanism versus Communism.

MATHEMATICS

One of the most important subjects in today's scientifically-minded world is mathematics. An ability to do at least simple computation is necessary in every type of work. Zephyrhills High School realizes this fact and requires a minimum of two units in this subject for graduation with a diploma.

Students may choose from the following: Algebra, physical science, plane geometry, trigonometry, and general mathematics.

DIVERSIFIED COOPERATIVE TRAINING

D. C. T. is the main vocational course in school that offers experience training. The students in D. C. T. go to school for half a day and work the rest of the day in local businesses.

These ambitious students receive two or three credits a year for their work in D. C. T.

COMMERCIAL

This course of study is for those students who are interested in entering the business field. These subjects prepare the student for an after-graduation job or for further education in business schools.

There are many different types of subjects offered in this course.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

Vo-Ag is for students, usually boys, who are more or less concerned about farming, ranching, or any one of the many jobs in the agricultural field.

The students are instructed in horticulture, poultry and livestock raising, and many others; also, they receive experience training by doing field work and various jobs around animals.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Up to a short time ago, physical education classes were held on our infamous "cement slab," and on a nearby field.

But now we have our great gymnasium. Many classes are held there, and these and some outdoor classes held in the afore mentioned field provide students with an opportunity to become physically fit at all times.

Two years of physical education are required for graduation.

LIBRARY

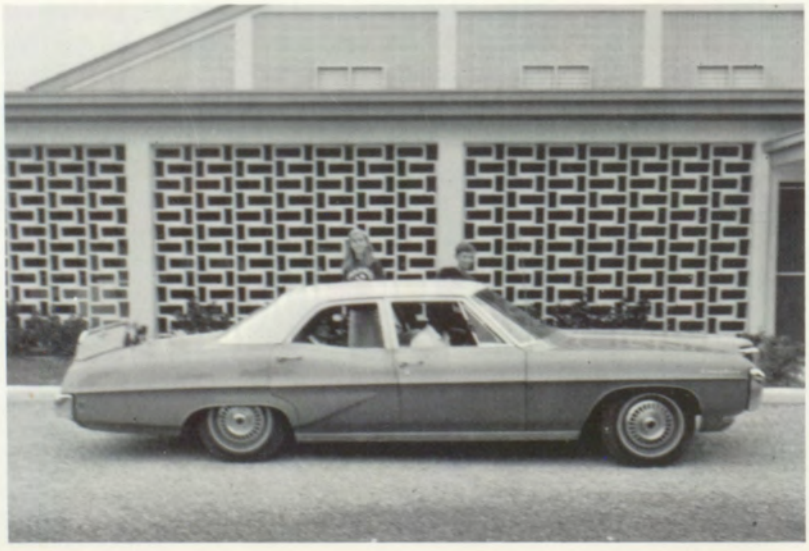

The primary source of information for all subjects and courses at Z. H. S., the library has an ever increasing number of books and reference materials from which students may acquire knowledge.

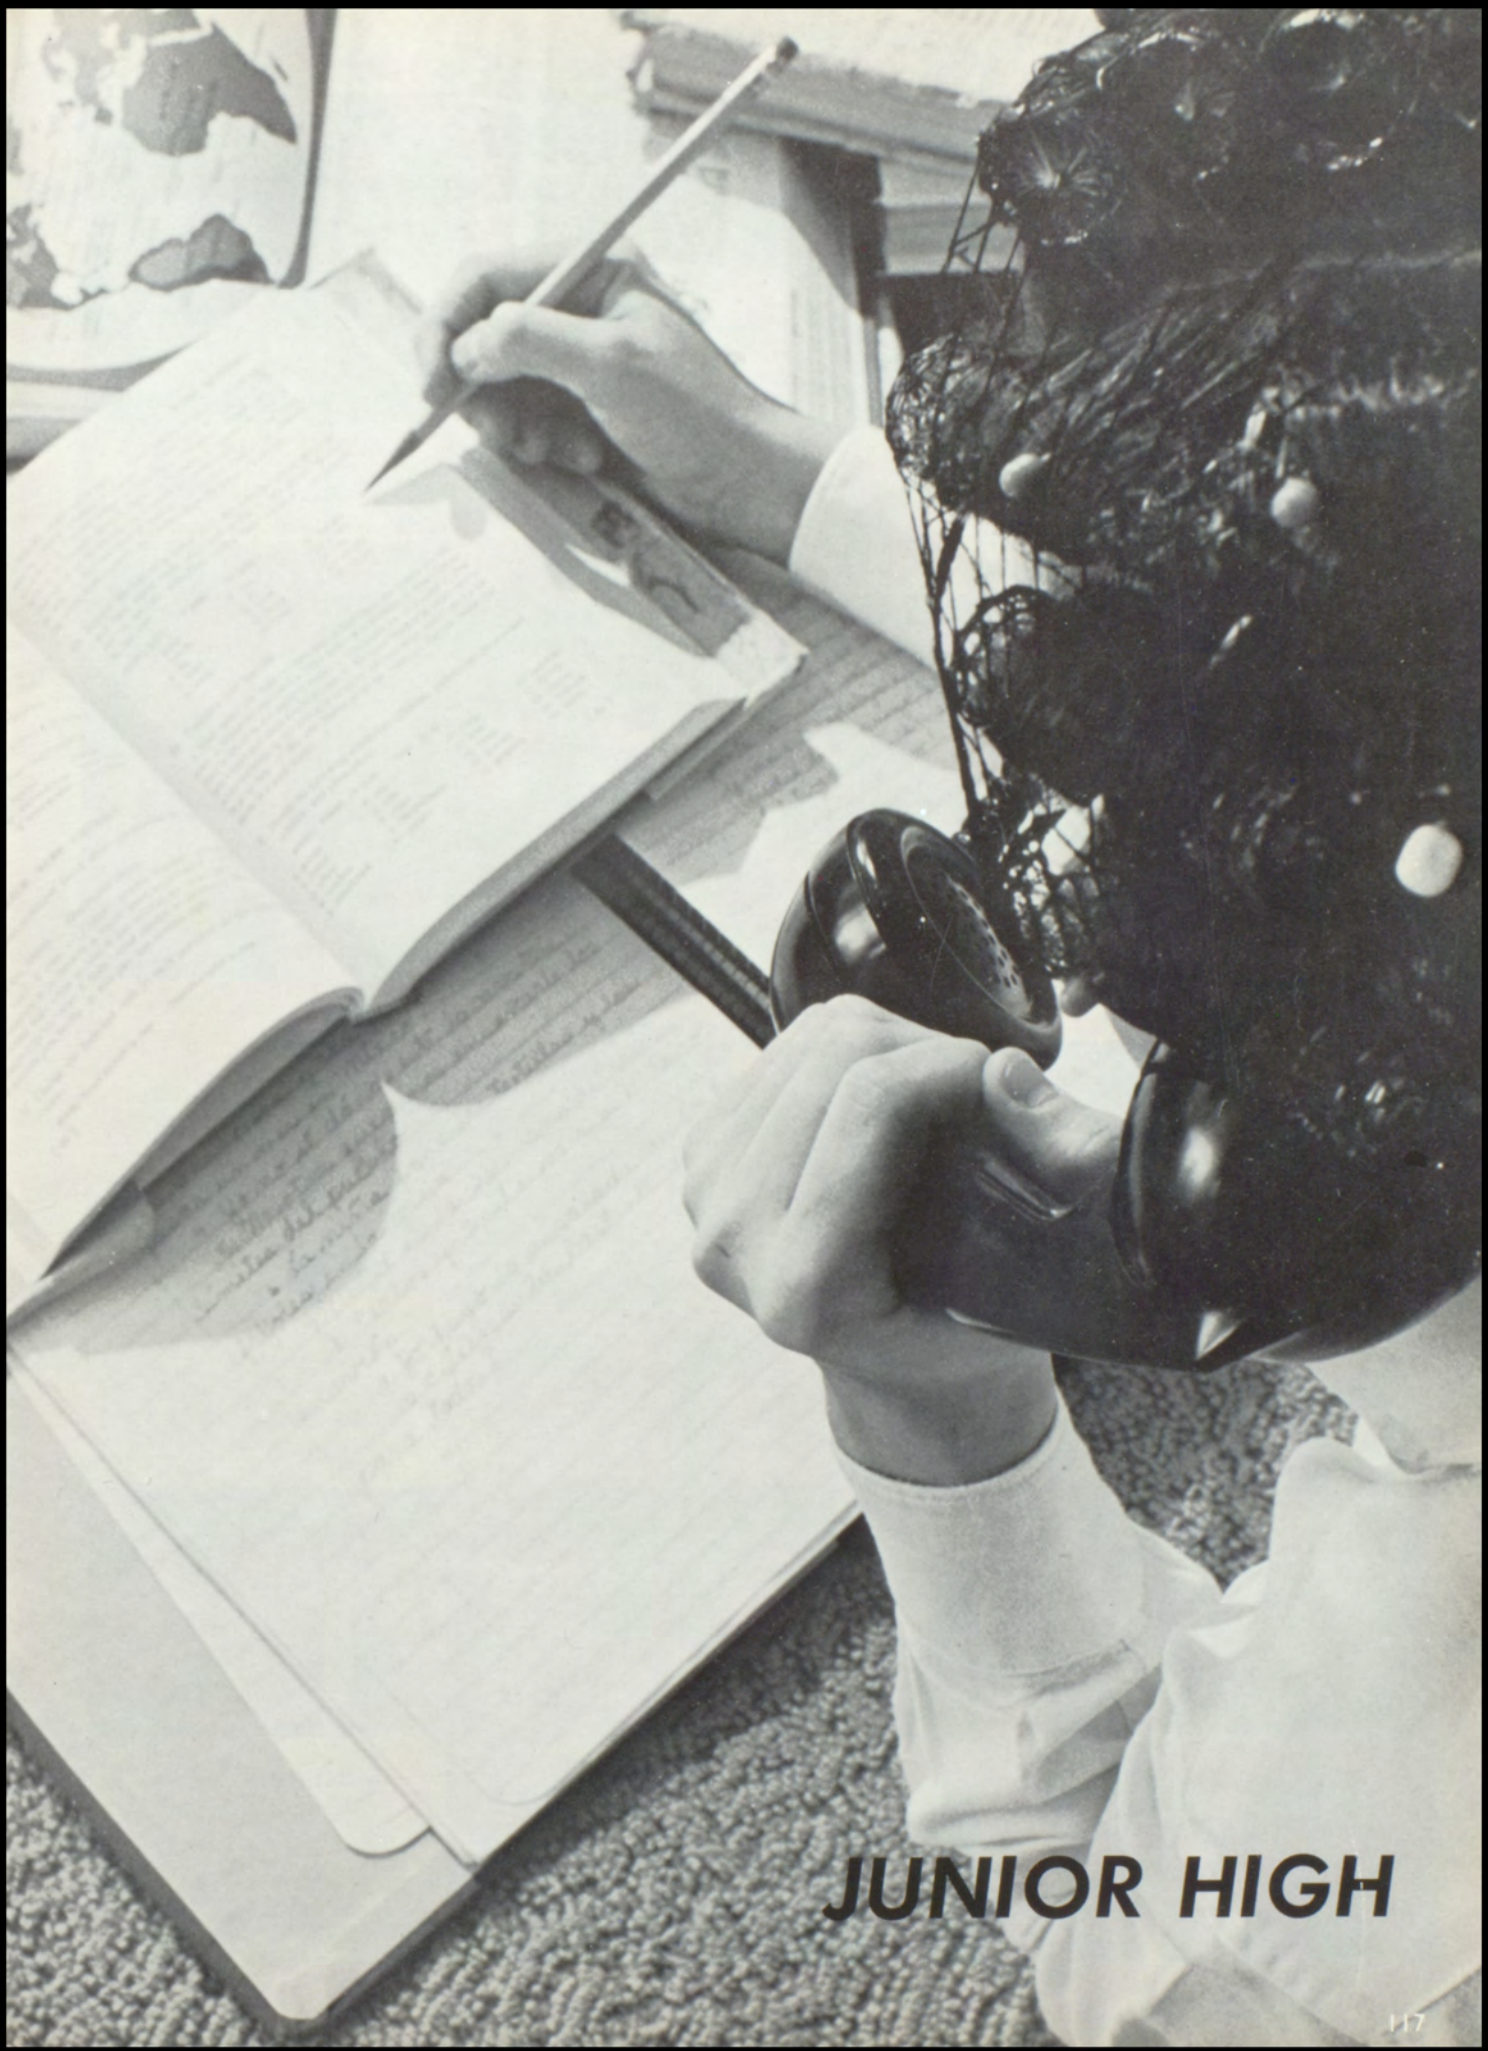

Mrs. Betty Hall, librarian, has also made available to students excellent paperback books which they may purchase for future use.

DRIVER'S EDUCATION

For half a year during the period allotted for physical education, students are given the opportunity to take a driver training course at school.

During the first nine weeks students study ruled books of the road preparatory to taking a test to acquire their restricted or regular driver's license.
